Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Regulation may be called the Ancient Monuments Preservation Regulation, 1925.

(2) It extends to the whole of Mysore.

Definitions

2. In this Regulation, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "ancient monument" means any structure, erection or monument, or any tumulus or place of interment, or any cave, rock-sculpture, inscription or monolith, which is of historical, archæological or artistic interest, or any remains thereof and includes,—

(a) the site of an ancient monument;

(b) such portion of land adjoining the site of an ancient monument as may be required for fencing or covering in or otherwise preserving such monument; and

(c) the means of access to and convenient inspection of an ancient monument;

(2) "antiquities" include any movable objects which the Government, by reason of their historical or archæological associations, may think it necessary to protect against injury, removal or dispersion;

(3) "Commissioner" includes any officer authorized by the Government to perform the duties of a Commissioner under this Regulation;

(4) "maintain" and "maintenance" include the fencing covering in, repairing, restoring and cleansing of a protected monument, and the doing of any act which may be necessary for the purpose of maintaining a protected monument or of securing convenient access thereto;

(5) "land" includes a revenue-free estate, a revenue-paying estate, and a permanent transferable tenure, whether such estate or tenure be subject to incumbrances or not; and

(6) "owner" includes a joint owner invested with powers of management on behalf of himself and other joint owners, and any manager or trustee exercising powers of management over an ancient monument, and the successor in title of any such owner and the successor in office of any such manager or trustee:

Provided that nothing in this Regulation shall be deemed to extend the powers which may lawfully be exercised by such manager or trustee.

Protected monuments.

3. (1) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare an ancient monument to be a protected monument within the meaning of this Regulation.

(2) A copy of every notification published under subsection (1) shall be fixed up in a conspicuous place on or near the monument, together with an intimation that any objections to the issue of the notification received by the Government within two months from the date when it is so fixed up will be taken into consideration.

(3) On the expiry of the said period of two months, the Government, after considering the objections, if any, shall confirm or withdraw the notification.

(4) A notification published under this section shall, unless and until it is withdrawn, be conclusive evidence of the fact that the monument to which it relates is an ancient monument within the meaning of this Regulation.

Ancient Monuments.

Acquisition of rights in or guardianship of an ancient monument.

4. (1) The Deputy Commissioner, with the sanction of the Government, may purchase or take a lease of any protected monument.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner, with the like sanction, may accept a gift or bequest of any protected monument.

(3) The owner of any protected monument may, by written instrument, constitute the Commissioner the guardian of the monument, and the Commissioner may, with the sanction of the Government, accept such guardianship

(4) When the Commissioner has accepted the guardianship of a monument under sub-section (3), the owner shall, except as expressly provided in this Regulation have the same estate, right, title and interest in and to the monument as if the Commissioner had not been constituted guardian thereof.

(5) When the Commissioner has accepted the guardianship of a monument under sub-section (3), the provisions of this Regulation relating to agreements executed under Section 5 shall apply to the written instrument executed under the said sub-section.

(6) Where a protected monument is without an owner, the Commissioner may assume the guardianship of the monument.

Preservation of ancient monument by agreement.

5. (1) The Deputy Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Government, propose to the owner to enter into an agreement with the Government of Mysore for the preservation of any protected monument in his district.

(2) an agreement under this section may provide for the following matters, or for such of them as it may be found expedient to include in the agreement:—

(a) the maintenance of the monument;

(b) the custody of the monument, and the duties of any person who may be employed to watch it;

(c) the restriction of the owner's right to destroy, remove, alter or deface the monument or to build on or near the site of the monument;

(d) the facilities of access to be permitted to the public or to any portion of the public and to persons deputed by the owner or the Deputy Commissioner to inspect or maintain the monument;

(e) the notice to be given to the Government in case the land on which the monument is situated is offered for sale by the owner, and the right to be reserved to the Government to purchase such land, or any specified portion of such land, at its market value;

(f) the payment of any expenses incurred by the owner or by the Government in connection with the preservation of the monument;

(g) the proprietory or other rights which are to vest in the Government in respect of the monument when any expenses are incurred by the Government in connection with the preservation of the monument;

(h) the appointment of an authority to decide any dispute arising out of the agreement; and

(i) any matter connected with the preservation of the monument which is a proper subject of agreement between the owner and the Government.

(3) An agreement under this section may be executed by the Deputy Commissioner on behalf of the Government of Mysore, but shall not be so executed until it has been approved by the Government.

(4) The terms of an agreement under this section may be altered from time to time with the sanction of the Government and with the consent of the owner.

(5) With the previous sanction of the Government, the Deputy Commissioner may terminate an agreement under this section on giving six months notice in writing to the owner.

(6) The owner may terminate an agreement under this section on giving six months' notice to the Deputy Commissioner.

(7) An agreement under this section shall be binding on any person claiming to be owner of the monument to which it relates, through or under a party by whom or on whose behalf the agreement was executed.

(8) Any rights acquired by Government in respect of expenses incurred in protecting or preserving a monument shall not be affected by the termination of an agreement under this section.

Owners under disability or not in possession.

6. (1) If the owner is unable, by reason of infancy or other disability to act for himself, the person legally competent to act on his behalf may exercise powers conferred upon an owner by Section 5.

(2) In the case of village property, the head man or other village officer exercising powers of management over such property may exercise the powers conferred upon an owner by Section 5.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to empower any person not being of the same religion as the persons on whose behalf he is acting to make or execute an agreement relating to a protected monument which or any part of which is periodically used for the religious worship or observances of that religion.

Enforcement of agreement.

7. (1) If the Deputy Commissioner apprehends that the owner or occupier of a monument intends to destroy, remove, alter, deface or imperil the monument or to build on or near the site thereof in contravention of the terms of an agreement for its preservation under Section 5, the Deputy Commissioner may make an order prohibiting any such contravention of the agreement.

(2) If an owner or other person who is bound by an agreement for the preservation or maintenance of a monument under Section 5 refuses to do any act which is in the opinion of the Deputy Commissioner necessary to such preservation or maintenance or neglects to do any such act within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner may authorize any person to do any such act, and the expense of doing any such act or such portion of the expense as the owner may be liable to pay under the agreement may be recovered from the owner as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(3) A person aggrieved by an order made under this section may appeal to the Commissioner who may cancel or modify it and whose decision shall be final.

Purchasers at certain sales and persons claiming through owner bound by instrument executed by owner.

8. Every person who purchases, at a sale for arrears of land revenue or any other public demand, an estate or tenure in which is situated a monument in respect of which any instrument has been executed by the owner for the time being, under Section 4 or Section 5, and every person claiming any title to a monument from, through or under an owner who executed any such instrument, shall be bound by such instrument.

Application of endowment to repair of an ancient monument.

9. (1) If any owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under Section 5 for the preservation of a protected monument, refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement when proposed to him by the Deputy Commissioner, and if any endowment has been created for the purpose of keeping such monument in repair, or for that purpose among others, the Deputy Commissioner may institute a suit in the Court of the District Judge, or, if the estimated cost of repairing the monument does not exceed one thousand rupees, may make an application to the District Judge for the proper application of such endowment or part thereof.

(2) On the hearing of an application under sub-section (1), the District Judge may summon and examine the owner and any person whose evidence appears to him necessary, and may pass an order for the proper application of the endowment or of any part thereof, and any such order may be executed as if it were the decree of a Civil Court.

Compulsory purchase of ancient monument.

10. (1) If the Government apprehends that a protected monument is in danger of being destroyed, injured or allowed to fall into decay, the Government may proceed to acquire it under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Regulation, 1894, as if the preservation of a protected monument were a "public purpose" within the meaning of that Regulation.

(2) The powers of compulsory purchase conferred by sub-section (1) shall not be exercised in the case of--

(a) any monument which or any part of which is periodically used for religious observances; or

(b) any monument which is the subject of a subsisting agreement executed under Section 5.

(3) In any case other than the cases referred to in sub-Section (2) the said powers of compulsory purchase shall not be exercised unless the owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under Section 5 has failed, within such reasonable period as the Deputy Commissioner may fix in this behalf, to enter into an agreement proposed to him under the said section or has terminated or given notice of his intention to terminate such an agreement.

Maintenance of certain protected monuments.

11. (1) The Commissioner shall maintain every monument in respect of which the Government has acquired any of the rights mentioned in Section 4 or which the Government has acquired under Section 10.

(2) When the Commissioner has accepted the guardianship of a monument under Section 4, he shall, for the purpose of maintaining such monument, have access to the monument at all reasonable times, by himself and by his agents, subordinates and workmen, for the purpose of inspecting the monument, and for the purpose of bringing such materials and doing such acts as he may consider necessary or desirable for the maintenance thereof.

Voluntary contributions.

12. The Commissioner may receive voluntary contributions towards the cost of maintaining a protected monument and may give orders as to the management and application of any funds so received by him.

Provided that no contribution received under this section shall be applied to any purpose other than the purpose for which it was contributed.

Protection of place of worship from misuse, pollution or desecration.

13. (1) A place of worship or shrine maintained by the Government under this Regulation shall not be used for any purpose inconsistent with its character.

(2) Where the Deputy Commissioner has, under Section 4, purchased or taken a lease of any protected monument, or has accepted a gift or bequest, or the Commissioner has, under the same section, accepted the guardianship thereof, and such monument, or any part thereof, is periodically used for religious worship or observances by any community, the Deputy Commissioner shall make due provision for the protection of such monument or such part thereof, from pollution or desecration—

(a) by prohibiting the entry therein, except in accordance with conditions prescribed with the concurrence of the persons in religious charge of the said monument or part thereof, of any person not entitled so to enter by the religious usages of the community by which the monument or part thereof is used, or

(b) by taking such other action as he may think necessary in this behalf.

Government right in a monument.

14. With the sanction of the Government, the Commissioner may—

(a) where rights have been acquired by Government in respect of any monument under this Regulation by virtue of any sale, lease, gift or will, relinquish the rights so acquired to the person who would for the time being be the owner of the monument if such rights had not been acquired; or

(b) relinquish any guardianship of a monument which he has accepted under this Regulation.

Right of access to certain protected monuments.

15. (1) Subject to such rules as may after previous publication be made by the Government, the public shall have a right of access to any monument maintained by the Government under this Regulation.

(2) In making any rule under sub-section (1), the Government may provide that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Penalties.

16. Any person other than the owner who destroys, removes, injures alters, defaces or imperils a protected monument, and any owner who destroys, removes, injures, alters, defaces or imperils a monument maintained by Government under this Regulation or in respect of which an agreement has been executed under Section 5, and any owner or occupier who contravenes an order made under Section 7, sub-section (1), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

Traffic in Antiquities.

Power to Government to control traffic in antiquities.

17. (1) If the Government of Mysore apprehend that antiquities are being sold or removed to the detriment of Mysore or of any neighbouring province or state, it may by notification in the Official Gazette, prohibit or restrict the bringing or taking of any antiquities or class of antiquities described in the notification into or out of Mysore or any specified part of Mysore.

(2) Any peoson who brings or takes or attempts to bring or take any such antiquities into or out of Mysore or any part of Mysore in contravention of a notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(3) Antiquities in respect of which an offence referred to in sub-section (2) has been committed shall be liable to confiscation.

(4) An officer of Police of a garde not lower than Sub-Inspector, duly empowered by the Government in this behalf, may search any cart or other means of conveyance, and may open any baggage or package of goods, if he has reason to believe, that goods in respect of which an offence has been committed under sub-section (2) are contained therein.

(5) A person who complains that the power of search mentioned in sub-section (4) has been vexatiously or improperly exercised, may address his complaint to Government, and the Government shall pass such order and may award such compensation, if any, as appears to it to be just.

Protection of Sculptures, Carvings Images, Bas-reliefs, Inscriptions or like objects.

Power to Government to control moving of sculptures, carvings or like objects.

18. (1) If the Government considers that any sculptures, carvings, images, bas-reliefs inscriptions or other like objects ought not to be moved from the place where they are without the sanction of the Government, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any such object or any class of such objects shall not be moved unless with the written permission of the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) A person applying for the permission mentioned in sub-section (1) shall specify the object or objects which he proposes to move, and shall furnish, in regard to such object or objects, any information which the Deputy Commissioner may require.

(3) If the Deputy Commissioner refuses to grant such permission, the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final.

(4) Any person who moves any object in contravention of a notification issued under sub-section (1), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(5) If the owner of any property proves to the satisfaction of the Government that he has suffered any loss or damage by reason of the inclusion of such property in a notification published under sub-section (1), the Government shall either—

(a) exempt such property from the said notification;

(c) pay compensation for any loss or damage sustained by the owner of such property, if it be immovable.

Purchase of sculptures, carvings or like objects by the Government.

19. (1) If the Government apprehends that any object mentioned in a notification issued under Section 18, sub-section (1), is in danger of being destroyed, removed, injured or allowed to fall into decay, the Government may pass orders for the compulsory purchase of such object at its market value, and the Deputy Commissioner shall thereupon give notice to the owner of the object to be purchased.

(2) The power of compulsory purchase given by this section shall not extend to—

(a) any image or symbol actually used for the purpose of any religious observance; or

(b) anything which the owner desires to retain on any reasonable ground personal to himself or to any of his ancestors or to any member of his family.

Excavations.

Power to Government to control excavation.

20. (1) If the Government is of opinion that excavation within the limits of any local area ought to be restricted or regulated for the purpose of protecting or preserving any ancient monument, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gaztte, make rules—

(a) fixing the boundaries of the area to which the rules are to apply; and

(b) prescribing the authority by which, and the terms on which, licenses to excavate may be granted.

(2) The power to make rules given by this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

(3) A rule made under this section may provide that any person committing a breach thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

(4) If any owner or occupier of land included in a notification under sub-section (1), proves to the satisfaction of the Government that he has sustained any loss by reasons of such land being so included, the Government shall pay compensation in respect of such loss.

General.

Assessment of market value or compensation.

21. (1) The market value of any property which Government is empowered to purchase at such value under this Regulation or the amount of compensation to be paid by Government in respect of anything done under this Regulation, shall, where any dispute arises touching the amount of such market value or compensation, be ascertained in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Regulation, 1894, Sections 3, 8 to 34, 45 to 47, 51 and 52, so far as they can be made applicable:

Provided that when making an inquiry under the said Land Acquisition Regulation, 1894, the Deputy Commissioner shall be assisted by two assessors, one of whom shall be a competent person nominated by the Deputy Commissioner and one a person nominated by the owner; or, in case the owner fails to nominate an assessor within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf, by the Deputy Commissioner.

Jurisdiction.

22. A Magistrate of the third class shall not have jurisdiction to try any person charged with an offence against this Regulation.

Power to make rules.

23. (1) The Government may make rules for carrying out any of the purposes of this Regulation.

(2) The power to make rules given by this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

Protection to public servants acting under Regulation.

24. No suit for compensation and no criminal proceeding shall lie against any public servant in respect of any act done or intended to be done in good faith in the exercise of any power conferred by this Regulation.
